Graduation is only a milestone in life journey. It does not mark the end of the education road. In a very real sense it is the commencement time, the beginning of a new journey which will test the toughness of your mental and moral fibre, the efficiency of your university training. The new experiences, the new problems and the new situations will demand from you the exercise of qualities for the fostering of which the university functions. In a new & Independent India the future will give powers & responsibilities to you. The historic role of the large educated classes in the building up of free India cannot be over estimated. If a leader is one who knows where he is going, who has a firm grasp of the insights & institutions which have made our civilization so enduring & who can harness them for every aspect of life, it is on the university that can train men for leadership.

The universities are more than institutions for higher learning & professional training. They are called upon to educate, younger generation, form character & create new type of intellectual leadership.

Street theatre in India is a well established ancient art form, despite the proliferation of modern means of entertainment and communication, street theatre continues to flourish in India. Street theatre as a channel of communication has for centuries been propogating reforms, by highlighting social, economic and political issues present in the society.

Unlike in the olden days, its performance is no longer restricted to villages or small localities of the city. Today, small groups of performers, including students, would stage performances to mobilise public opinion or to help create or raise awareness over an issue of particular public importance.

The team India Cricket Shop opened with the Smashing of a cocount on the morning of 29 April 2000. All our immediate families had come. My mother and Omi's family were visibly happy while Ish's parents were silent. They still visualised Ish as an army officer, not a shopkeeper in Belrampur.

'May Laxmi shower all blessings on you Hardworking boys', - Omi's mother said before she left.

Soon, it was just us in our twenty-feet-by-ten-feet shop.

'Move the counter in, the shutter won't close', Ish screamed at Omi. Omi's forehead broke into sweat as he lifted the bulky countertop yet again to move it back an inch.

I stepped out of the shop and crossed the road for the tenth time to look at the board. It was six feet wide and two feet tall. We had painted it blue - The colour of the Indian Cricket team. In the centre, we had the letters 'Team India Cricket Shop' in the colours of the Indian flag. The excited painter from Shahpur had thrown in the faces of Tendulkar & Ganguly for free. Ganguly had a squint and Tendulkar's lips looked bee-stung, but it all added to the charm.
